

The 3rd annual Frank Longay Memorial Concert featuring

Berta Rojas

in a concert for the whole family

Renowned for her flawless technique and innate musicality, Berta Rojas ranks among the world's foremost classical guitarists. Her warmth and heart touching musical artistry delight audiences wherever she performs. She has been praised as "Guitarist Extraordinaire" by the Washington Post, and by Classical Guitar magazine as an "Ambassador of the classical guitar." A master guitarist who displays outstanding technical and musical virtuosity. As a performer, Rojas ranks among the top players of the day as she is both technically proficient and emotionally expressive on every note.

sunday, september 1, 2013 at 1:30pm

Le Petit Trianon
72 North Fifth Street, San Jose

General Admission • $20
Artist reception • adults $10 • children $5

Tickets available online at: www.sbgs.org or by email at: kim@longay.com

A benefit concert co-produced by Frank Longay Memorial Foundation and South Bay Guitar Society

