

Gift Certificate Order Form

The gift of music is a very intimate one especially when offered to someone who longs to realize their musical potential on the classical guitar. Your gift will be remembered for years to come. These certificates are best suited for beginning or advanced, teenagers and adults.

Fill out this form and mail it with a check made out to the Longay Conservatory of Guitar for the amount below. An attractive authorized gift certificate will be mailed to you for you to give to the recipient. Allow two weeks for delivery.

After receiving the certificate the recipient may call the conservatory to schedule lessons. Scheduled lessons are offered on a weekly basis according to the teacher's availability and must be taken in concurrent weeks. There are no refunds or monitory redemption of gift certificates.
