

announces
LONG TERM PROFESSIONAL TRAINING PROGRAM in
SUZUKI GUITAR!

September 5, 2009

Dear Teacher,

This is a rare opportunity for anyone interested in making a valuable difference in the world by beginning or continuing a successful career in Suzuki music education. Due to its continued growth, LCG, one of the leading Suzuki guitar education and training centers in the world, has an immediate opening for a caring and dedicated trainee.

BENEFITS INCLUDE...

- One hour, weekly training in progressive levels of Suzuki Guitar pedagogy with master trainer Frank Longay;
- One hour, weekly meeting with trainer and other trainee(s) regarding the experience in teaching currently enrolled students;
- Observation and discussion of teaching by trainer;
- Monthly salary determined by the number of students enrolled;
- Training as accompanist in group class and performance settings;
- Guidance in conducting successful group classes;
- Meaningful and rewarding career in the field that you love.

TRAINEE'S RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE...

The highest music education standards are maintained at LCG. Among other responsibilities, a trainee should be expected to...

- Adhere to Dr. Suzuki's educational vision;
- Conduct private lessons;
- Meet all students' music educational needs;
- Maintain high musical and pedagogical standards;
- Participate as accompanist in group class settings; as well as eventually conduct group class;
- Participate in LCG events including concerts, recitals, open houses, graduations and play-ins;
- If qualified, conduct young children music education program;
- Be able to work effectively with others, show a positive attitude and, of course...
- Have fun!

QUALIFICATIONS...

- Degree (BA, BS or Masters Degree) with an emphasis in music education or performance;
- One year experience in teaching children classical guitar
- Experience in Orff, Kodaly and/or working with very young children would be a tremendous benefit.

More information?

LCG is growing. If you feel that making a career in bringing the beauty of the classical guitar to children and families in the Santa Clara Valley would bring special purpose and meaning to your life, then please don't hesitate to contact us. We have a home for you.

To request more specific information about Suzuki Guitar or to learn more about our program see our website at...

www.longay.com

or contact Kim Buller, administrative director, by phone at (408)343-0933 or you can send a request by email to kim@longay.com

All information we receive will be kept confidential. We are looking forward to hearing from you!

LONGAY CONSERVATORY OF GUITAR

4701 Patrick Henry Drive, Building 9, Santa Clara, CA 95054